

Cairo Zone League

(Prince Toscon Cup till 1926/1927 season)

Since 1923/1924 Cairo Zone league was part of 1st country-wide regional competitions in modern league form, In addition of 2 cup form competitions Egyptian & Sultan cups

When nation-wide Egyptian league started in 1948/49 and the following season 1949/50; Cairo league champion was decided by results of Cairo teams in national league with no separate matches for Cairo league

Starting 1950/51 season Cairo league matches resumed but were played with reserves and juniors except in 1951/52 where league was cancelled due to preparation for Olympic games

& 1957/58 when competition was part of a nationwide Zonal competition independent from Egyptian league but its results would be used to determine relegation from league divisions I. Teams in same league group would carry their Head to Head result to their Zone competition

Honours

Ahly 15 titles, Zamalek 14 titles, Sekka 2 titles, Tersana 1 title

Year	Champion	Year	Champion
1922/23	Zamalek "Mokhtalat"	1938/39	Ahly
1923/24	Sekka	1939/40	Zamalek "Mokhtalat"
1924/25	Ahly	1940/41	Zamalek "Mokhtalat"
1925/26	Sekka	1941/42	Ahly
1926/27	Ahly	1942/43	Ahly
1927/28	Ahly	1943/44	Zamalek "Farouk"
1928/29	Zamalek "Mokhtalat"*	1944/45	Zamalek "Farouk"
1929/30	Zamalek "Mokhtalat"	1945/46	Ahly
1930/31	Ahly	1946/47	Zamalek "Farouk"
1931/32	Zamalek "Mokhtalat"	1947/48	Ahly
1932/33	Tersana	1948/49	Zamalek "Farouk"
1933/34	Zamalek "Mokhtalat"	1949/50	Ahly
1934/35	Ahly	1950/51	Zamalek "Farouk" #
1935/36	Ahly	1951/52	Zamalek "Farouk"
1936/37	Ahly	1952/53	Zamalek #
1937/38	Ahly	1957/58	Ahly

Zamalek club changed names 2 times from Mokhtalat to Farouk to current name Zamalek

* Dispute on title winner Details

Competition was not played by first teams

* 1933/34 season was played in only one round due to Egypt's participation in Olympic games & in World Cup

* Contrary to the general belief that Zamalek won Cairo league 1945/46, according to Ahram Newspaper on 10/3/1946, Ahly beat Zamalek in the final league match and won title, see more

